Enriching Community Life

Nomination paper for membership of Celbridge Community Council for the term 2018-2020

Celbridge Community Council is a purely voluntary organization that was founded in 1975. Our vision for Celbridge is one of a vibrant town with a strong sense of community, where local people come together to tackle challenges through local solutions, making Celbridge an even better place to live, work and visit. Celbridge Community Council's mission is to improve the quality of life for community members across all stages of life. We do this by supporting community well-being through services that target the groups most in need, by promoting local initiatives and services and by positively influencing the future development of Celbridge.
